Story

S: Woohoo! It's story time...

K: Today's story is about is a race between the turtle and the hare.

One day a hare was bragging about how fast he could run.

HARE: I am the fastest runner in the world! I can run so fast no one will ever catch me!

K: A turtle was walking by.

HARE: Look at this old turtle. She is so slow I could run around the world before she reaches that tree on the other side of the meadow.

K: The turtle looked at him and smiled.

TURTLE: Do you really believe that? Alright, let's have a race.

HARE: Hahahaha! Are you joking? Hahahaha! Yes, let's do it. I can beat you any time.

K: All the animals came to watch, whispering that the turtle must be crazy. The race began...

Ready, steady, go!

The hare started running very fast and soon the turtle was far behind him. He ran through the meadow full of beautiful, green grass.

HARE: Mmm, I'm hungry and this grass looks delicious.

K: He looked back and saw the turtle walking very slowly.

HARE: I will stop and eat a bit. There is plenty of time to win this race.

K: Meanwhile, the turtle was still walking, step by step.

HARE: Phew... I will take a nap, there is plenty of time to win this race.

K: He fell asleep. In the meantime, the turtle kept walking and walking and walking. She never stopped.

When the hare woke up, he couldn't see the turtle anywhere.

HARE: Haha! the turtle is so slow she still hasn't caught up to me. Plenty of time to win this race.

K: But he wanted to show off, so he ran as fast as he could. But when he finally reached the finish line, the turtle was already there! She smiled at him.

TURTLE: The fastest runners do not always win.

THE END
